YES? LET'S TALK!

We are an international transportation and logistics service provider – big enough to organise and carry out logistics and transportation contracts all over the European Union, small enough to be flexible and find fast solutions for all customers.

A young, dynamic team deals with every enquiry and ensures customer satisfaction using a modern logistics system. We are looking to strengthen our successful team with for France and Germany. It awaits you an interesting field of activity requiring a high level of responsibility and independent work within a dynamic and professional environment. Attractive working conditions, flexible processes and a motivating remuneration are ensured.
